

JAPANESE-GERMAN CENTER BERLIN [JDZB]
KEIZAI KOHO CENTER [KKC]
FRIEDRICH EBERT FOUNDATION [FES]
in cooperation with
GERMAN INSTITUTE FOR JAPANESE STUDIES [DIJ]

TENTATIVE PROGRAMME

for the symposium
Work style reform – how will home, company and society shine more and how can gender equality contribute?

Tuesday, November 6, 2018
at Keidanren Kaikan, 4F Diamond Room, Tokyo

Languages: English and Japanese

14:00 h	Opening
14:00 h	Makoto WATANABE (Senior Managing Director, Secretary General, KKC)
14:05 h	Prof. Dr. Michiko MAE (Heinrich Heine University Düsseldorf, Member of the Foundation Council, JDZB)
14:15 h	Keynote: Work-style reform and gender equality in Germany Colette RUECKERT-HENNEN (Member of the Board, EJOT Holding GmbH & Co. KG)
14:35 h	Configuration change and break
14:40 h	Session 1: Challenges for industry and business Chair: TBD (with introduction from chair)
14:45 h	PD Dr. Elke HOLST (Research Director and Senior Economist, German Institute for Economic Research, DIW Berlin)
15:00 h	Michiko ACHILLES (Vice President, SAP Japan)
15:10 h	Colette RUECKERT-HENNEN (Member of the Board, EJOT Holding GmbH & Co. KG)
15:15 h	Discussion / Q&A
15:35 h	Wrap-up
15:38 h	Change of speakers
15:40 h	Session 2: Challenges for government Chair: Dr. Martin POHL (Counsellor, Labour and Health Affairs, Embassy of the Federal Republic of Germany to Japan (with introduction from chair))
15:45 h	Dr. Ralf KLEINDIEK (Senior Advisor, Boston Consulting Group, former State Secretary, Federal Ministry for Family Affairs, Senior Citizens, Women and Youth)
16:00 h	Yasuko MATOBA (Executive Researcher, Life Design Research Department, Dai-ichi Life Research Institute Inc.)
16:10 h	Rie KUROKI (Director, Gender Equality Bureau, Cabinet Office of Japan)
16:20 h	Discussion / Q&A
16:40 h	Wrap-up
16:45 h	Adjourn